

Classical Trainers in USA and Canada

Here are classical trainers currently in the USA and Canada Listed geographically from the east to the west coast. Contact them directly for further information.

Tina Cristiani Veder

The Baroque Equestrian Games & Institute

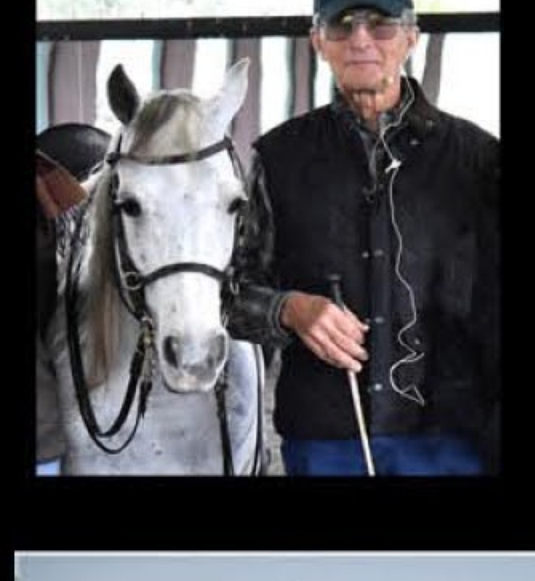

Caballos de los Cristiani & New Dawn Equestrian Classical training, starting young horses, showing competitive dressage FEI, lessons, full boarding available. New York, Ocala Florida 352.502.5422 http://www.andalusian-usa.com Email: tveder@msn.com

Bruno Gonzales

The Baroque Equestrian Games & Institute

Caballos de los Cristiani & New Dawn Equestrian Classical training, starting young horses, showing competitive dressage FEI, lessons, full boarding available. New York, Ocala Florida 352.502.5422 http://www.andalusian-usa.com Email: tveder@msn.com

Karen Rohlf, Dressage Naturally

Dressage Naturally is an educational system that focuses on partnership, communication, and gymnastic development as an artful process that should leave both horse and human feeling powerful, confident, and exhilarated. Karen Rohlf's primary motivation is to increase the happiness and harmony for horses and their humans. That process starts with ourselves and is nurtured throughout the Dressage Naturally process.

Karen Rohlf Ocala Florida www: http://dressagenaturally.net email: karenrohlf@dressagenaturally.net

Holly Hansen, HH Classical Training

Columbus, NC Tel: 828-863-2825 Cell: 817-320-7581

Dedicated to preserving the art of classical dressage. Our training methods adhere to the principles of the Old Masters. This system understands and protects the gentle nature of the horse and works with each individual physically as well as psychologically. http://hhclassicaltraining.com email: hhclassical@sbglobal.net

Carlos Carneiro

Aiken, SC Carlos Carneiro is available for clinics worldwide to train horse and riders of all levels to improve their techniques and riding potential. Classical dressage, work-in-hand, lunge lessons, Working Equitation. email: carlos.s.carneiro@hotmail.com

Hilda Gurney Keenriddle Farm

Moorpark, California 805-529-3575 Hilda Gurney is an active competitor, breeder, trainer, judge and was involved in founding the California Dressage Society. Known for her attention to detail and perfection, Gurney won the team bronze medal at the 1976 Olympics in Montreal with her self-trained horse, Keen. The duo returned for the 1984 Los Angeles Olympics, and Keen was later inducted into the U.S. Dressage Federation Hall of Fame. Email: hildagurney@prodigy.net

Sabine Schut-Kery

Thousand Oaks, California http://www.sabineschut.com

I grew up in Germany and learned to ride in the German tradition. I discovered my love for exhibition riding as a young girl. I was fortunate to be able to apprentice with Jean Bernelmans, the coach of the Spanish Olympic Team. Afterwards I continued to receive intensive training from Stephanie Meyer-Biss. After I moved to the U.S., I also studied with Jan Nivelle (coach for the Spanish Young Riders team), at regular clinic intervals. Since moving to California, I have continued my riding education with Sue Blinks and Christine Traurig. I take only eight horses at a time, so that each horse will receive my full attention. I personally ride all of my training horses five days per week. All training horses are turned out on grass pasture seven days a week. The horses receive top notch care at the beautiful facility El Campson Farms in Thousand Oaks, located between Los Angeles and Santa Barbara. I like to design a program to fit each horse's needs. I enjoy working with horses at all stages of their dressage training.

Stephanie Millham

Avillon School of Classical Dressage - email: Steffmillham@gmail.com Stephanie credits her two legendary mentors for passing on their great wealth of academic knowledge as well as teaching and training techniques: Dr. H.L.M. van Schaik and Nuno Oliveira, with whom she rode regularly for ten years. "I was fortunate to be in the right place at the right time to receive instruction from two of the great classicists of the last century," she says. "In keeping with the old tradition of direct transmission of knowledge from master to student, one on one, I consider it an honor but also a duty to help pass this legacy to the next generation." During her competitive career Stephanie enjoyed success at FEI levels.

Sarah Pinney

Sun Hill Training - Poway, California 760-214-1379 or 760-599-4000 With 40 years riding experience and 25 years as a professional, Sarah Pinney has truly made her passion for horses a lifetime commitment. Classically educated in Portugal, Great Britain and the States, she emphasizes a classical dressage foundation for both horse and rider. She believes that with such a foundation, you and your horse can pursue any equestrian discipline. Her training techniques have been shaped by such world-renowned trainers as Joao Oliveira, Jean-Claude Racinet, and Maestre Luis Valenca. http://www.sunhilltraining.com

Jec Aristotle Ballou

Santa Cruz, CA 831-419-3445 Jec's lifelong study of classical dressage includes ten intensive training residencies in Portugal, two training residencies in Holland, and one residency in Germany with the late Egon von Neindorff. Most recently, she has studied in Melbourne, Australia with Manolo Mendez, original head rider of the Royal School of Equestrian Arts in Spain. Jec is available for clinics and speaking engagements/workshops throughout the U.S. Author of 3 books, including the best-selling 101 Dressage Exercises for Horse and Rider Web: http://www.jecballou.com email: jec_aristotle@hotmail.com

Miguel Undabarrena

Cuadra San Benito Training Center Peoria, AZ 602.293.7788 CuadraSanBenito@gmail.com Classical Training, Competitive Dressage, Working Equitation, Doma Vaquera, Doma Clasica USDF Gold Medalist Offering clinics, lessons, showing, full training/board.

Sr. Francisco Garcia Ibanez "Specialist Master Rider" Royal Andalusian School of Equestrian Art in Jerez Spain

Sr Garcia is based in Aiken, South Carolina. He is a knowledge classical trainer from Spain with a lifetime of experience with Iberian horses. Grand Prix to high school (alta esquila) and aires above the ground. He is available for training, clinics and private lessons throughout the country. Contact Susan Nielsen Happily Ever After Dressage 610.350.6777

UPDATE | Sr Ibanez returned to Spain

CANADA

Frank Grello

Grello Farms, Caledon Ontario, Canada 905.838.1838 Email: info@arelofarms.com http://www.grellofarms.com Frank Grello was born in Portugal, the son of a cavalry man and master blacksmith. He has spent his entire life closely associated with horses, and trained in Portugal and France before meeting the legendary Nuno Oliveira, who coincidentally, lived only forty miles from Frank's hometown in Portugal. For a number of years, Frank rode under the instruction of Oliveira and learned much about the ancient art of Classical Dressage. In 1971, Frank immigrated to Canada, where he continues the legacy at Cedar Mills in Bolton, Ontario.

Marie-Claude Bouillon

Luna Caballera, Quebec Canada Email: mcbouillon@globetrotter.net http://lunacaballera.com A website in French language featuring Marie-Claude Bouillon and her cadre of performers. Marie-Claude is a trainer, writer, performer and offers classical dressage clinics on theory and practice. She also hosts clinics for Frank Grello

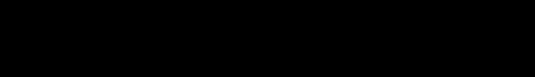

PORTUGAL

Sofia Valença

Centro Equestre da Leziria Grande Vila Franca de Xira, Portugal Sofia Valença, a passionate Portuguese horse trainer from the legendary Valença family, dedicates her life to classical equitation and the art of working with Lusitano horses. Through the Valença Method, she guides riders in developing true partnership via in-hand, long rein, and dressage work rooted in listening and harmony. Sofia shares her expertisethrough immersive experiences, clinics, and online programs worldwide.

SPAIN

Epona Equestrian Center | Centro Ecuestre Epona

Carmona, Andalucía, Spain Website: www.eponaspain.com Phone: +34 955 958 561 Centro Ecuestre Epona is a family-run, British Horse Society (BHS) approved riding centre located near Carmona in Andalusia, Spain — just outside Seville in the heart of the famous Andalusian horse region. Specializing in classical dressage and trail riding on well-trained PRE horses, Epona offers a variety of week-long riding holiday programs for all levels, including intensive dressage training (with options for High School movements on schoolmaster horses), combined train-and-trail packages, and cultural experiences. Professional instruction from certified instructors, beautiful countryside rides, top facilities, and comfortable accommodations.

